MORE FUN AHEAD.

EMPORIA, Kan., Dec. 27.—At a meeting of the officers of the grand lodge of the Good Templars of Kansas today a law-enforcement league was created, which, it is intended, shall hereafter play a prominent part in temperance matters. Subordinate leagues will be organized in each county seat and town to collect evidence and assist the county attorneys in the prosecution of joint-keepers.

Rev. A. M. Leon of Salina, Rev. C. H. Johns of Kansas City, Judge J. F. Culver of Emporia and Major Bateman of California, representing the supreme lodge of the Good Templars of the World, will immediately begin a canvass of the state, organizing leagues and putting other organizers in the field. They say that they have been driven to this step by the poor way in which the prohibitory law has been enforced throughout the state, and that hereafter it will be enforced to the letter.

HELD UP TO SCORN.

CHICAGO SOCIETY WOMEN SCORED BY A LONDON EDITOR.

The Devotee of Fashion Declared to be a More Disreputable Character Than the Street Walker—An Exceedingly Wrathful Meeting of Representatives of the Women's Clubs of the City by the Lake—Notes.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Editor W. T. Stead created a sensation at a joint meeting of the women's clubs of this city at Recital hall this afternoon. The meeting was called by the Chicago Woman's club to confer upon plans to aid the suffering poor women and children of the city. Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson presided, and the hall was filled with representatives of all the women's clubs in the city.

Mr. Stead, who had been invited to address the meeting, said that he welcomed the opportunity. Sitting side by side with the active workers before him, he said, were the most disreputable people in Chicago. Nothing was more obnoxious to anyone who paid any attention to the teachings of the Gospel than the fact that the conventional judgment about respectable and disreputable was quite foreign to the Christian ideal. Who were the most disreputable women in Chicago? They were those who had been lowered by society and Providence with all gifts and all opportunities, but who lived entirely self-indulgent lives. These women, who had great opportunities only to neglect them, were more disreputable in the eyes of God and man than the most abandoned woman on the streets.

Mr. Stead's actual language was somewhat stronger than that quoted above. After Mr. Stead's speech he retired from the meeting and the women went into executive session to discuss his remarks, excluding the press reporters. Many of the ladies present were exceedingly wrathful over the editor's remarks, and the meeting after Mr. Stead withdrew was very stormy. Nothing was said, however, and no resolution concerning Mr. Stead's remarks was adopted. After the meeting many of the women declared that under no circumstances would they again attend a meeting at which the Englishman was present.

As the cost of shipping this stock is so great, we have decided to still further reduce the stock before packing and shipping the remaining stock to Cleveland, O., we will further cut the prices on most of the hats as well as on the furnishing goods, to one-half of the former selling prices, and on some hats, still more, hats must be sold, as they contain our name viz: "Joe," the Hatter, Wichita, Kansas, on the linings and sweat leathers, consequently would not be good property to sell in Cleveland.

THE COUGHLIN TRIAL.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—In the Coughlin trial today a number of witnesses were on the stand, and the testimony given was practically the same as that adduced at the former trial. There were rumors in the court house today that the day after tomorrow an important character had been discovered by the officers of the state. A man, said to have been the recipient of a large sum of money, and the conspirator, it is reported, has been heard of. He lives in another city, and a detective has been sent to interview him, with a view of attempting to corroborate Mrs. Foy's testimony.

MADRID, Dec. 27.—The trial of Delbosche and Verstra, charged with attempting to blow up the parliament house at Madrid, who were arrested on April 4, 1892, is now in progress.

Six persons were arrested last evening upon suspicion of being engaged in a conspiracy to blow up the parliament house, which place the queen regent and the infants were to attend a performance yesterday evening. The royal family were warned and remained away. In some manner news of this warning reached the audience, which made a hasty exit.

RATHBONE AND HARRISON.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—Dispatches have been published recently, stating that Major J. E. Rathbone, who was John C. New's lieutenant at the Minneapolis convention, was at the head of an organization to boom ex-President Harrison for re-nomination. Major Rathbone furnished the Associated Press a statement tonight, in which he denies the report, and says that he believes the allegation comes from persons who have begun to think that General Harrison may prove to be a formidable candidate should he decide to let his name go before the convention.

"The evident purpose," says Major Rathbone in his statement, "is to kill him off. I do not believe there is any organization in existence, and I am certain that I am not at the head of such, or in any way connected with it. Recent events tend to bring Mr. Harrison out in stark contrast to the present administration, and may be the cause for alarm on the part of those who may desire some other candidate for the presidency."

FAILURES.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—Samuel Heller, a coal merchant, and a director in the New England railroad, has failed.

Mr. Heller, in an interview, said that he and when the stock fell he simply could not stand the squeeze. Mr. Heller had faith in President McLeod, and on the basis of this he had invested about $25,000 in the stock. Heller has many friends among capitalists, who, when they knew that he was going to fail, offered to help him out, but he preferred to resign. It is believed that he will pay dollar for dollar. A statement of assets and liabilities cannot be obtained today.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Receiver Thomas Hurley of the banking firm of J. F. McElroy & Co., was in possession of the offices of the Guarantee Investment company today, much to the surprise of the company's board of directors. Judge Windes on Saturday evening, but as the court affairs had left to get ready for the Christmas vacation, the appointment did not become generally known. The company is the one whose affairs have recently figured extensively in the courts, the officers now having appeals pending, and the company is in a precarious position for maintaining a lottery.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—An amended bill has been filed in the court of Griffin V. Nye and Foundry company against the Grant Locomotive works, asking for a receiver for the defendant concern.

TOPEKA, O., Dec. 27.—Application has been made for the appointment of a receiver for the Chapin Cattle company.

The petition sets forth that the total indebtedness of the company is $62,750, and that the assets will not pay out.

In the race held after the grand jury. The men were indicted on two counts, the first accusing them of setting up a bookmaking office, and the second accusing them of receiving bets on the grand jury. The attorney for the accused moved that the indictment be quashed, on the ground that it set up no offense under the statutes, and the judge fixed January 4 for hearing the motion. In consequence of the court's action, the race men have decided to abandon the racing until January 4. If the indictment is sustained the Ivy City track will be abandoned.
